Selection Criteria:

Although each scholar is understandably different, there are 3 common qualities which the various selection committees look out for:

Academic Excellence

All scholars are expected to be academically outstanding with the ability to make a significant contribution to society in their field of interest.

Leadership Potential

All scholars are expected to be able to demonstrate a clear ability to lead; envision the future, engage with others, execute with excellence.

A Commitment to Improve Lives in Nepal

All scholars are expected to use their knowledge and talents for the benefit of society and their fellow countrymen.

Selection Process:

There are 3 stages in the selection process to ensure that all scholars meet the highest selection criteria.

Stage 1

Applicants are shortlisted based on their academic and extra-curricular records as well as their personal statement and references by the Islington College Course Leaders and Student Services and RTE Managers.

Stage 2

Applicants are invited to attend an assessment exercise followed by an individual interview with senior management of Islington College.

Stage 3

The final 3 applicants will be undergo further evaluation and the final decision will be made by senior London Metropolitan University academics and officers.
